

KPI'S/STATISTICS

The use of key performance indicators, KPI's, is a way to benchmark safety performance and continuous improvements between ships, fleets and companies.

The KPI's/Statistics module in IRIS allows user to perform measurement and compilation of key indicators, freely selected from the data stored in the IRIS database.

Results can either be displayed in predefined templates, or further analysed and presented in standard computer based editors, such as Excel, Word etc.

Improvement Reporting & Information System

Contact us for a live demo!